

CARY'S EFFORTS AT MAKING INFORMATION AVAILABLE AND PARTICIPATE IN DECISIONS

A set of two questions examined information dissemination and opportunities for involvement in decision making. The respondents were first asked about Cary making information available to them concerning Town services, projects, issues and programs using a 9-point rating scale ranging from very dissatisfied (1) to very satisfied (9). Table 55 indicates the respondents felt very satisfied about the matters that affect them. The mean was 7.49 with 87.2% on the "satisfied" side of the scale (above 5) versus only 2.9% on the "dissatisfied" side (Figure 11). The mean has increased from 7.33 in 2016. Though not statistically significant, it represents the highest mean earned to date. Note the "satisfied" percentages grew from 83.6% to 87.2% this year, while the "dissatisfied" percentages fell slightly from 3.0% to 2.9%. The respondent's comments when deciding on their rating are shown in Appendix K. There were 22 total comments and five comments focused on the respondent's general perception of not feeling very well informed. There were also three comments for unaware of the information being available.

The respondents were then asked to rate their satisfaction with the opportunities the Town gives them to participate in the decision-making process. The same 9-point satisfaction rating scale was used. Table 56 shows a mean of 6.98 this year with 71.4% on the "satisfied" side of the scale and only 3.9% on the "dissatisfied" side (Figure 12). The mean has increased from 6.67 in 2016, and this increase was statistically significant. This year's mean is the second highest earned to date. Driving the mean increase was the reduction on the "dissatisfied" side from 6.2% in 2016 to 3.9% this year. Appendix L shows the respondent's comments when deciding on their rating. There were 26 total comments given by the respondents. The most frequent comment was the respondent was unaware of the opportunities (14 comments). There were also four comments for the Town already made up its mind/will not listen to citizens. See Appendix B for selected Cary's efforts at making information available and opportunities to participate in decision making crosstabulations (B313-B330).
